Emperor Nero was emperor from 54-68 A.D. Nero is infamous for having watched Rome burn while he fiddled as the story goes. He is also known to Christian biblical historians as someone who persecuted the early Christians, blaming them for the fire in Rome. This guide is designed to show some authentic ancient Roman coins that Nero had along with telling you a little bit of history about them. Towards the end of the video, Ilya Zlobin shares where the emperors ancient coins can be found for sale in his eBay shop, along with some of the best coin and historical books on the subject.
